

EKATERINA GLADILINA

Ceramic Artist
EGCeramice / EG4EG

Professional Profile

Ekaterina Gladilina explores ceramics as a language of form, memory, and botanical imagery. Her practice combines contemporary art, decorative tradition, and object design through sculptural works, wall objects, and interior series.

Education

Russian State University for the Humanities (RSUH)

Higher School of Artistic Practices and Museum Technologies

Program: History of Art; History of Western European Art from Antiquity to the Late 19th Century

07 Oct 2015 — 17 Feb 2016

Artistic Practice

- Founder of EGCeramice, a registered trademark since 2025
- EG4EG — trademark pending registration
- Original series in botanical ceramics
- Hand-building, underglazes, glazes, and multiple firings
- Works developed for gallery, collectible, and interior contexts

Selected Series and Projects

- Herbarium
- Flora Vasonium
- Flower for a Vase
- Botanical Archive

Exhibitions and Projects

- 2026 — Russian Art Week, International Exhibition-Competition of Contemporary Art, Gogol Art, Moscow Center of Contemporary Arts, Moscow
- 2025 — Moscow Interior and Design Week, Manege Central Exhibition Hall, Moscow
- 2024 — Exhibition at Dominanta Artist Residency as part of the opening ceremony, Uvarovsky Sugar Plant
- 2024 — Solo exhibition Botany/Ceramics, Flower Growing Eco-Center, Mospiroda, VDNH, Moscow
- 2023 — Moscow Interior and Design Week, Manege Central Exhibition Hall, Moscow
- 2019 — Spring-19 Exhibition, Moscow Artists' Union Exhibition Hall, Kuznetsky Most, Moscow

Fairs and Festivals

- 2023 — present: Ceramania, LocalCeramicFest, 4Ceramics, Moscow
- 2024 — Living Clay, Yaroslavl

Collections

Works by Ekaterina Gladilina are held in private collections in Russia and abroad.

Contacts

egceramice.ru | eg4eg.ru

info@egceramice.ru

Instagram* / Facebook* / VK / MAX / Telegram / Pinterest: @egceramice

+7 (903) 960-67-89

Instagram and Facebook are owned by Meta, a company recognized as an extremist organization; its activities are prohibited in the Russian Federation.